Call for panels & new members: IUAES Commission on Anthropology and Education

Are you teaching, working or researching in the field of Anthropology and Education?

1. Join the IUAES Commission on Anthropology and Education

Our international commission brings together researchers, educators and students involved in the field of Anthropology and Education. Interests of the commission include the complimentary roles of anthropology of education and anthropology in education. We exchange experiences of setting up anthropology education at pre-university level and explore similarities and differences between the teaching and learning of anthropology in schools, colleges, universities, adult education centres and extra-curricular events and activities. To join the commission, please contact the Commission Secretary: Emma Ford education@therai.org.uk

Webpage of the IUAES Commission on Anthropology and Education: http://iuaes.org/comm/education.html
Website of the IUAES (International Union of Anthropological and Ethnological Sciences): http://iuaes.org/index.html The main goal of the IUAES is to facilitate wide-ranging global exchanges between anthropologists/ethnologists in interests of the discipline’s development.

2. Call for Panels: 18th World Congress of the IUAES, 16th to 20th July 2018 in Florianópolis, Brazil

We invite you to propose open panels connected with the IUAES Commission on Anthropology and Education at the 18th World Congress of the IUAES.

Panels could address the experience of setting up anthropology at pre-university level, anthropology in educational settings and anthropology of educational settings, the teaching of anthropology through qualifications and extra-curricular events and programmes, anthropology education and the public awareness of anthropology, anthropology education and careers and future directions for anthropology and education.

To propose an open panel linked with the Anthropology and Education commission:
- please inform education@therai.org.uk of your panel idea by 23rd Oct 2017 before submitting your panel online.
- submit your panel to the World Congress Website (http://www.iuaes2018.org/site/capa) by the 31st Oct 2017. In this online application please state that your panel is connected with the IUAES Commission on Anthropology and Education.

To propose an open panel, you need:
- a) two panel convenors linked to institutions from different countries
- b) to ensure both convenors must have current IUAES memberships (see https://www.iuaes.org/membership.html)
- c) to ensure both convenors have registered for the IUAES World Congress (register here: http://www.iuaes2018.org/inscricoes).

Please read the complete rules for proposing open panels (“section II. Panels”) in http://www.iuaes2018.org/conteudo/view?id_conteudo=441 before submitting your application.

3. The IUAES Anthropology and Education Commission will also be organising meetings and a symposium at the 18th World Congress of the IUAES, 16th to 20th July 2018 in Florianópolis, Brazil. Please get in touch to find out more.

Best wishes,

Emma Ford
Secretary to the IUAES Commission on Anthropology and Education
Education and Communications Officer at the Royal Anthropological Institute
50 Fitzroy St, London W1T 5BT, UK
education@therai.org.uk
Tel: (+44) 020 7387 0455